SURRENDER
& AWAKENING

FEATURES

6 DANCE OF THE WIGHT GODDESS

Maria Ede-Weaving

I had worked hard on myself over the last few years, but recent events had left me exhausted. So I sought sanctuary.

12 CHARIOT OF THE SUN

Tess Dawson

As Lady Shapshu rolls beneath us and our day ends, another day begins in the House of Freedom.

15 VISIONS OF CRETE

Melodie Bolt

I knew that the Cretan Goddess wanted me arms upraised, snakes in hand, just like the gorgeous statue.

18 SEARCH FOR THE INNER DURGA

Jerda Schmetzler

Durga is both the gentle, nurturing mother and the ferocious warrior; her many arms are often shown cradling a young child or wielding a host of formidable weapons.

22 THE DESCENT

Gretchen Treadwell

Why am I still so tempted to go down, following downward circles that end up in the same place?

27 HEXAGRAM 58: THE JOYOUS

Dina Peace

My boyfriend had just dumped me and I was driving from eastside to westside Detroit to see my good friend and mentor Salima. It was late January in Motown, snow on the ground and the wind icy. But inside, my growing rage was blazing like a furnace.
